Sample Questions and Answers from the 2006 Exam

To provide a concrete example of the exam's structure, let's explore some sample questions and their answers from the 2006 AP Human Geography released exam.

1. Sample Multiple-Choice Question:

- Question: Which of the following best describes the demographic transition model?
- A) A model that describes the relationship between economic development and population growth.
- B) A model that explains the changes in birth and death rates over time.
- C) A model that predicts urban growth patterns.
- D) A model that describes cultural diffusion.
- Correct Answer: B) A model that explains the changes in birth and death rates over time.

2. Sample Free-Response Question:

- Question: Discuss the impact of globalization on cultural landscapes. Include specific examples to illustrate your points.
- Sample Answer: Globalization has significantly altered cultural landscapes across the globe. One notable example is the proliferation of fast-food chains, such as McDonald's, which can be found in urban areas worldwide. This phenomenon reflects the spread of American culture and consumption patterns. Additionally, globalization has led to the homogenization of cultural practices, as local traditions may diminish in favor of global trends. For instance, traditional clothing may be replaced by Western-style attire, impacting cultural identity. Conversely, globalization has also allowed for greater cultural exchange, as seen in the popularity of world cuisines, art forms, and festivals.
