

70s cartoon trivia questions and answers

70s cartoon trivia questions and answers can transport us back to a vibrant era of animated entertainment that shaped the childhoods of many. The 1970s was a transformative decade for animation, introducing audiences to a slew of beloved characters and memorable shows that still resonate today. From Saturday morning cartoons to prime-time animated series, the 70s laid the groundwork for the animation we enjoy now. This article will delve into a variety of trivia questions and answers focused on 70s cartoons, providing a fun and nostalgic trip down memory lane.

Popular 70s Cartoons

The 70s was filled with groundbreaking cartoons. Some of the most influential ones include:

- Scooby-Doo, Where Are You! – Debuting in 1969, this series continued to gain popularity throughout the 70s.
- The Jetsons – A futuristic counterpart to The Flintstones, it first aired in 1962 but saw a revival in the 70s.
- Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids – Created by Bill Cosby, it first aired in 1972 and was notable for its positive messages.
- Schoolhouse Rock! – Launched in 1973, it used catchy songs to teach children about grammar, math, science, and history.

Trivia Questions

Here are some intriguing trivia questions based on popular 70s cartoons, categorized by their respective shows or themes.

Scooby-Doo, Where Are You!

1. What is the name of the dog in Scooby-Doo?
- Answer: Scooby-Doo.
2. Who are the members of the Mystery Inc. gang?
- Answer: Fred, Daphne, Velma, Shaggy, and Scooby-Doo.
3. What is Shaggy's full name?

- Answer: Norville Rogers.

4. In what year did Scooby-Doo first premiere?

- Answer: 1969.

5. What catchphrase is commonly associated with Scooby-Doo?

- Answer: "Scooby-Doo, where are you?"

The Jetsons

1. What is the name of George Jetson's wife?

- Answer: Jane Jetson.

2. What is the name of George Jetson's boss?

- Answer: Mr. Spacely.

3. Which robotic character is known for his catchphrase, "Ruh-roh"?

- Answer: Rosie the Robot (notably similar to Scooby-Doo's "Ruh-roh!" catchphrase).

4. What futuristic gadget does George Jetson use to get to work?

- Answer: A flying car.

5. What is the name of the Jetsons' dog?

- Answer: Astro.

Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids

1. Who created Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids?

- Answer: Bill Cosby.

2. What is the name of the group of friends in Fat Albert?

- Answer: The Junkyard Gang.

3. What lesson is commonly taught in Fat Albert episodes?

- Answer: Life lessons, such as friendship, responsibility, and overcoming adversity.

4. What is the name of the character who often wore a red hat and a yellow shirt?

- Answer: Fat Albert.

5. In what year did Fat Albert and the Cosby Kids first air?

- Answer: 1972.

Schoolhouse Rock!

1. What was the primary goal of Schoolhouse Rock!?

- Answer: To educate children through entertaining songs and animations.

2. Which song from Schoolhouse Rock! teaches about the legislative process?

- Answer: "I'm Just a Bill."

3. What year did Schoolhouse Rock! first premiere?

- Answer: 1973.

4. What type of educational topics did Schoolhouse Rock! cover?

- Answer: Grammar, math, science, and history.

5. What character from Schoolhouse Rock! is known for teaching multiplication?

- Answer: Multiplication Rock characters, including "Three Is a Magic Number."

Additional Trivia Questions

As we continue to explore 70s cartoon trivia questions and answers, here are some additional questions that highlight other iconic series from the decade.

Other Iconic Cartoons

1. What cartoon features a character named "Bugs Bunny" but was actually created in the late 1930s?

- Answer: Bugs Bunny is from Looney Tunes but gained immense popularity in the 70s.

2. In the cartoon 'The Amazing Spider-Man', what is his secret identity?

- Answer: Peter Parker.

3. What was the name of the character who often said, "I'll be back!" in the 70s animated series?

- Answer: This phrase is more commonly associated with Arnold Schwarzenegger's character in later years, but the character that said something similar in cartoons was 'The Terminator' in a parody.

4. What 70s cartoon featured a talking cat named "Heathcliff"?

- Answer: Heathcliff.

5. What is the name of the superhero family in the 70s animated series 'The Brady Kids'?
- Answer: The Brady Kids featured the characters from the live-action show The Brady Bunch.

Classic Characters and their Traits

1. Which character is known for his “smoking” pipe and loves to eat spinach?
- Answer: Popeye.
2. What character is famous for saying, “I tawt I taw a puddy tat”?
- Answer: Tweety Bird.
3. Which character is known for being a mischievous cat who often chases a mouse named Jerry?
- Answer: Tom from Tom and Jerry.
4. What is the name of the cartoon bear who loves honey?
- Answer: Winnie the Pooh.
5. What superhero is known for his sidekick, Robin?
- Answer: Batman.

Conclusion

Exploring 70s cartoon trivia questions and answers not only brings back a wave of nostalgia but also enhances our appreciation for the creativity and storytelling that defined this vibrant decade. The cartoons of the 70s laid the foundation for future animated shows and introduced us to characters that became cultural icons. Whether you were a fan of Scooby-Doo or Fat Albert, the 70s offered a diverse range of animated entertainment that continues to influence generations of viewers.

As we look back, it's clear that these beloved cartoons were more than just entertainment; they were a significant part of childhood for many and hold a special place in the hearts of those who grew up during this dynamic decade. So gather your friends for a trivia night, relive those cherished moments, and celebrate the magic of 70s animation!

Frequently Asked Questions

What animated series featured a group of teenagers solving mysteries alongside their talking Great Dane?

Scooby-Doo, Where Are You!

Which cartoon character was known for his catchphrase, 'What's up, Doc?' in the 1970s?

Bugs Bunny

In the 1970s, what was the name of the superhero family featured in the Hanna-Barbera cartoon that included a dog named Dynomutt?

The Blue Falcon and Dynomutt

What was the name of the 1970s animated series that followed a family of cave dwellers?

The Flintstones

Which 1970s cartoon featured a group of superheroes like Superman, Batman, and Wonder Woman who teamed up to fight villains?

Super Friends

What animated series depicted the adventures of a group of children who traveled through time using a time machine called the 'Time Machine'?

The 7th Voyage of Sinbad

In the 1970s, which cartoon featured a character named Fred Flintstone and his prehistoric family?

The Flintstones

70s Cartoon Trivia Questions And Answers

70s Cartoon Trivia Questions And Answers

Related Articles

- a chateau in provence english edition
- 3 digit addition with regrouping worksheets
- 63 medians and altitudes of triangles answer key

Back to Home