The 4th edition of this textbook represents the latest updates and pedagogical strategies designed to enhance the learning experience.

Overview of the AP U.S. History Course

The Advanced Placement U.S. History course is a college-level class offered in high schools across the United States. It is designed to provide students with a deep understanding of American history from pre-Columbian times to the present day. The course emphasizes critical thinking, historical analysis, and the ability to interpret primary and secondary sources.

Course Structure

The structure of the AP U.S. History course is typically divided into several key periods, each exploring different themes and events in American history. The College Board outlines these periods as follows:

1. Period 1: 1491-1607 - Focuses on the pre-Columbian era, European exploration, and the impact of contact between Native Americans and Europeans.
2. Period 2: 1607-1754 - Examines the establishment of colonies and interactions among diverse cultures.
3. Period 3: 1754-1800 - Covers the causes and consequences of the American Revolution and the creation of the U.S. government.
4. Period 4: 1800-1848 - Discusses the early republic, expansion, and social reform movements.
5. Period 5: 1844-1877 - Focuses on issues of slavery, civil war, and reconstruction.
6. Period 6: 1865-1898 - Examines industrialization, immigration, and the rise of urban America.
7. Period 7: 1890-1945 - Looks at the Progressive Era, the World Wars, and the Great Depression.
8. Period 8: 1945-1980 - Discusses the Cold War, civil rights movement, and social changes.
9. Period 9: 1980-Present - Explores contemporary America, globalization, and the challenges of the 21st century.
