1. Red Phase

- Duration: Approximately three weeks
 - Focus: Soldiers learn the basics of military life, including customs, courtesies, and physical fitness.
- This phase includes the initial introduction to weapons training and basic first aid.

2. White Phase

- Duration: Approximately four weeks
- Focus: Soldiers receive more advanced training in weapons handling, land navigation, and combat tactics. This phase emphasizes teamwork and building camaraderie among recruits.

3. Blue Phase
