Understanding the Bonus Round

The bonus round is the final segment of the game show, where the winning contestant has the opportunity to win additional prizes by solving a final puzzle. This puzzle is more challenging than those faced in earlier rounds, requiring a combination of skill, strategy, and luck.

How the Bonus Round Works

1. Selection of the Puzzle Category: Before the puzzle is revealed, contestants choose from several categories, such as "Phrase," "Event," or "Person." The chosen category helps narrow down the potential answers.
2. Spin the Wheel: Contestants spin a smaller wheel that contains various cash amounts and prizes. However, unlike the main game, there are no bankrupt sections in the bonus round wheel.
3. Letter Selection: The contestant is allowed to choose a few consonants (usually three) and one vowel. The letters chosen will be revealed on the puzzle board.
4. Solving the Puzzle: After the letters are revealed, contestants have a limited amount of time to solve the puzzle. Contestants can often use their knowledge of common phrases and patterns to help identify the answer.
