History of Turtle Soup

Turtle soup has a long and storied history in Louisiana, dating back to the early 18th century. Originally, it was a dish enjoyed by the wealthy, as turtles were considered a delicacy. The use of turtle in soup reflects the resourcefulness of early settlers who made use of the abundant natural resources available in Louisiana's swamps and rivers.

Ingredients for Brennan's Turtle Soup

To make Brennan's turtle soup, you'll need the following ingredients:

- 2 pounds of turtle meat (preferably from a soft-shell turtle)
- 1/2 pound of smoked sausage, diced
- 1/2 cup of butter
- 1 cup of chopped onion
- 1/2 cup of chopped celery
- 1/2 cup of chopped green bell pepper
- 4 cloves of garlic, minced
- 1/4 cup of flour
- 8 cups of chicken stock

- 2 cups of diced tomatoes
- 1 tablespoon of Worcestershire sauce
- 1 teaspoon of hot sauce (to taste)
- 1 teaspoon of dried thyme
- 1 teaspoon of bay leaves
- Salt and pepper to taste
- 1/4 cup of fresh parsley, chopped
- 1/4 cup of sherry or brandy (optional)

Step-by-Step Instructions

Creating the perfect bowl of turtle soup requires time and attention to detail. Follow these steps for an authentic Brennan's turtle soup experience:

1. Preparing the Turtle Meat

If you are using fresh turtle meat, ensure that it is properly cleaned and cut into bite-sized pieces. If using pre-packaged turtle meat, you can skip this step.

2. Sauté the Vegetables

In a large pot, melt the butter over medium heat. Add the chopped onion, celery, and bell pepper. Sauté the vegetables until they are soft and translucent, about 5 to 7 minutes. Add the minced garlic and sauté for an additional minute.

3. Cook the Sausage

Add the diced smoked sausage to the pot and cook until browned, approximately 5 minutes. The sausage will add a depth of flavor to the soup, making it even more delicious.

4. Make the Roux

Sprinkle the flour over the vegetable and sausage mixture, stirring constantly for about 5 minutes to create a roux. The roux should turn a light brown color, which will help to thicken the soup.

5. Add the Turtle Meat

Add the turtle meat to the pot, stirring to combine. Cook for about 5 minutes, allowing the meat to brown slightly.

6. Pour in the Stock

Gradually pour in the chicken stock, stirring to incorporate the roux. Bring the mixture to a boil, then reduce the heat to low and let it simmer for about 1.5 to 2 hours. This slow cooking allows the flavors to meld beautifully.

7. Incorporate the Tomatoes and Seasonings

After 1.5 hours, add the diced tomatoes, Worcestershire sauce, hot sauce, thyme, bay leaves, salt, and pepper to the soup. Continue to simmer for an additional 30 minutes.

8. Finishing Touches

Before serving, stir in the chopped parsley and sherry or brandy if desired. Taste and adjust the seasoning as necessary. Remove the bay leaves before serving.
