Sample Christian Version of 'Twas the Night Before Christmas'

To illustrate how these themes can be woven into a Christian version, here is a sample rendition:

'Twas the night before Christmas, when all through the land,
Not a creature was stirring, just the touch of God's hand.
The stars brightly shining, a promise in the sky,
For the Savior was coming, the reason to rely.

The shepherds were watching, their flocks in the night,
When suddenly there shone a glorious light.
An angel appeared, with good news to unfold,
"Fear not! For behold, this story is told.

In Bethlehem's stable, a child will be born,
He'll bring hope to the hopeless, joy to the forlorn.
Wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger,
This child is our Savior, no need to find danger."

The wise men from far, with their gifts in hand,
Followed the star to the promised land.
Gold, frankincense, myrrh they would bring,
To honor the child, our Savior, our King.

As Mary and Joseph looked down with delight,
They knew this was special, this holy night.
For God had sent Jesus, His love to impart,
A gift for all people, a gift from the heart.

So let us remember, as we gather around,
The true meaning of Christmas, in love we are found.
Let's share with each other, the joy that we feel,
For the birth of our Savior, our faith is made real.
