Major Themes in Act 3

Several themes are prominent in Act 3, reflecting the play's broader commentary on society and human behavior:

1. Hysteria and Fear

The court is driven by fear, leading to irrational decisions. The mass hysteria in Salem demonstrates how fear can quickly spiral out of control, causing individuals to act against their better judgment.

2. Authority and Power

The characters' struggles with authority are evident, particularly in Danforth's commitment to the court's power. This theme explores how authority can corrupt and the dangers of placing blind faith in institutions.

3. Truth and Integrity

John Proctor's battle for truth highlights the importance of integrity. The act poses critical questions about what it means to stand up for one's beliefs, even in the face of overwhelming adversity.

4. Reputation and Redemption

Proctor's character development throughout Act 3 reveals how reputation influences one's actions. His journey towards redemption is a central focus, culminating in his ultimate decision to reveal his sins.

Important Plot Points

Act 3 is packed with crucial developments that drive the narrative forward. Here are some significant plot points to consider:

- 1. The Courtroom Confrontation: John Proctor and Giles Corey confront the court, attempting to present evidence against the girls' accusations.
- 2. Mary Warren's Dilemma: Mary struggles to stand up to Abigail and the other girls, showcasing the pressure they exert over her.
- 3. Proctor's Confession: In a desperate move, Proctor confesses to his affair with Abigail to discredit her motivations, risking his own reputation.

4. The Court's Reaction: Danforth's refusal to believe Proctor's claims illustrates the court's corruption and the overarching theme of power.
5. Final Accusations: The act ends with the chaos of the court as Abigail and the other girls feign attacks, leading to Proctor's arrest.

Key Quotes from Act 3

Quotes from Act 3 are vital in understanding the emotional weight and thematic depth of the play. Here are some essential lines to analyze:
