Understanding the CT Bar Exam

The Connecticut bar exam is administered twice a year, typically in February and July. It is designed to assess the knowledge and skills necessary to practice law in the state. The exam consists of several components:

Exam Structure

1. Multistate Bar Examination (MBE):

- The MBE is a 200-question, multiple-choice exam covering various areas of law, including Constitutional Law, Contracts, Criminal Law, Evidence, Real Property, and Torts.

2. Connecticut Specific Law Exam:

- This portion tests candidates on state-specific laws and procedures, including the Connecticut Rules of Professional Conduct and other relevant statutes.

3. Essay Questions:

- Candidates are required to write essays on specific legal issues, showcasing their analytical abilities and understanding of the law.

4. Performance Test:

- The performance test evaluates a candidate's practical skills by requiring them to complete tasks that a new lawyer might face in practice.

Eligibility Requirements

To sit for the CT bar exam, candidates must meet specific eligibility criteria:

- Graduation from an ABA-accredited law school.
